Dear Dr. Daniela Djikanovic,

We are pleased to inform you that your paper has been accepted for invited presentation at the 12th International Conference on Microscopy & Spectroscopy and Exhibition (INTERM 2025). The conference will be held from April 8-14, 2025 at the Convention Centre of the Liberty Hotel Lykia /Oludeniz Turkey.

We cordially invite you to attend INTERM 2025 and present your research paper entitled "Spectroscopic and Microscopic Study of Silicon-Lignin Interaction: Effects on Plant Cell Walls and Industrial Potential" by Daniela Djikanovic, Ksenija Radotic, Jelena Dragišić-Maksimović, Jelena Jovanović, Gordana Tanasijević, Aleksandar Kalauzi (Abstract ID: 786 – Invited Speaker). Your presence at the event would be a great honor for INTERM 2025.

In appreciation of your agreement to provide an invited talk, INTERM will waive 100% of the plain registration fee of the congress (not including accommodation - invited speakers are strongly encouraged to stay at the congress hotel). If you bring your graduate students to the poster presentation, they will also receive a 100% waiver of the registration fee.

We are sending this letter to you in hopes of possible financial support from your department as well as a VISA grant.

Thank you for your contribution, and we look forward to your participation at INTERM 2025.

Sincerely,

Prof. A. Yavuz Oral,
Congress Planning Chair
